Reporting Improper Governmental Action (Whistleblower Protection)

The district encourages the reporting, consistent with the district's procedures, of improper governmental action by any district administrators or employees and will protect employees against retaliatory employment actions when the reports are made in compliance with this policy and related procedures.

District administrators and employees are prohibited from taking retaliatory action against an employee because the employee has in good faith reported alleged improper governmental action in accordance with this policy and related procedures.

The Superintendent or designee will establish procedures for receiving and acting on employee reports of improper governmental action and responding to allegations of retaliation.
