

HOMESCHOOL STUDENTS AND FAMILIES...

SNOHOMISH SCHOOL DISTRICT'S PARENT PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM IS FOR YOU!

Why PPP?

Parent Partnership Program (PPP) is a Snohomish School District option that partners with homeschool students and their families.

In these times, we understand that some families may not yet be comfortable sending their children to school in the fall and are considering the option of homeschooling.

The advantages of our district's PPP program and partnering with your school include:

- Core academic courses
- Academic enrichment courses
- Expanded or supplemental activities
- Apex online learning
- Availability of remote and home-based classes

Learn more about PPP

For questions about homeschooling, the district's Parent Partnership Program (PPP) and how to enroll your child in PPP for the 2020–2021 school year, please call 360-563-3423. We are available throughout the summer and will be happy to help you, your student and family.

Parent Partnership Program
(A Snohomish School District program for homeschool students and their families)

525 13th Street
Snohomish, WA 98290

360-563-3423 (office)
360-563-3439 (fax)

Visit www.sno.wednet.edu/ppp or sla.sno.wednet.edu