

Honors English 10

with Mrs. White

What do we read?

- ❖ A forewarning tale about the nature of man
- ❖ A multiple perspective recollection of cataclysmic loss
- ❖ Arguably the bloodiest of Shakespeare's tragedies
- ❖ An epic tale of revolution

What do we write?

- ❖ Argumentative Analysis
- ❖ Reflections and Reactions
- ❖ Poetry

What's the difference between an Honors ELA course and a grade-level ELA course?

Honors covers most of the same materials that grade-level classes cover, but Honors complements with additional texts; sometimes alternate, more complex texts that meet the same CCSS; and assignments that require deeper thinking. Students opting into Honors can expect slightly more homework per night (perhaps 1.5x - 2x more than the grade-level courses).