NEW- Due to Finals Schedule, the Panther Pause will be closed today.

NEW- Visit room A-202 today during tutorial time to get some stress relief with Sage the therapy dog.

It’s that time of year for Fidos for Finals! Ms. Lischke’s Advanced Animal Biology class will have a dozen or so fun and friendly dogs on campus Wednesday in the Aux gym. Look for our furry friends wearing red and white bandanas. They are on campus today only for doggie kisses, cuddles and love. De-stress your day with some puppy love during both lunches. See ya in the AUX gym!

REMEMBERS

FBLA will be showing Incredibles 2 on Jan. 29th at 6PM in the Aux Gym. Tickets will be sold at both lunches $4 w/ASB $5 w/o. You can also buy them online; the link is in FBLA’s Instagram bio@snohofbla

Seniors, just a reminder that the The Washington State Opportunity Scholarship is open and is for students from low- or middle-income households that plan on getting a bachelor’s degree in a STEM related field, including healthcare. Scholarships of up to $22,500 can be awarded to qualified applicants. Visit https://www.waopportunityscholarship.org/ to apply!

Seattle Aquarium’s Ocean Career Day is Saturday, January 26th from 9am -2pm. Students, Get in for a $5 admission when you pre-register at http://www.Seattleaquarium.org/ocean-career ($10 at the door).

Any athlete that will be signing a National Letter of Intent on Wednesday, February 6th should stop by the Athletic Office and see Mr. Perry. We will do a signing, but we need to know who is signing that day.

Panther Pals- Ice skating at Angel of the Winds for those with PPs at Machias, Emerson, and Dutch Hill is tomorrow from 6-7:15. Please contact your PP now and arrange a meet-up. Get there early to get your skates on. Remind your PP to wear tall socks and dress warm.
