NEW- The Seattle Fire Department and the Washington Association of Future Firefighters are hosting a “Paths to a Career in Fire and Emergency Services” Expo on Saturday, January 12th from 10 am – 2pm at the Seattle Fire Department’s Joint Training Facility. There will be workshops and a small college fair so that students can learn more about this career field and their options for getting into it. See the Career Center for details.

NEW-SHS Fights Hunger-Anyone interested in helping with the meal packing project to create meals for the hungry locally and globally. Attend the Panther Period meeting on Wednesday January 16th in A-104

NEW-The Snohomish Aquatic Center is offering a lifeguard course over Martin Luther King Jr. Weekend. Employment opportunities are excellent upon completion of the course. More information at the pool, or on their website.

REMINDERS

YEARBOOKS are back on sale thru this Friday in the bookkeeping office and online.

https://www.sno.wednet.edu/fliers