

There is no required summer assignment for AP World History, however students should hone their geographic skills before September. Students should consider playing online geography games (like this one) in preparation for our studies.