Program Compliance

Annually, on or before October 1, the Superintendent will determine if the district is in compliance with the following program requirements:

- a. Current basic curriculum materials are available for required courses of study;
- b. Provision is made for the supervision of instructional practices and procedures;
- c. A program of guidance, counseling and testing services are maintained for students in all grades offered by the school district;
- d. A learning resources program is maintained at each building;
- e. The physical facilities of each school are adequate and appropriate for the educational program offered;
- f. There is adequate provision for the health and safety of all students within the custody of the school district;
- g. Appropriate measures are taken to safeguard all students and school district permanent records against loss or damage;
- h. Current policies and procedures pertaining to the administration and operation of the school district are available online or in each school's administrative office;
- i. The district is in compliance with the statutes which prohibit unequal treatment of individuals—on the basis of sex, race, creed, religion, color, age veteran or military status, sexual orientation, gender expression or identity, the presence of any sensory, mental or physical disability, or the use of a trained guide dog or service animal by a person with a disability, and national origin in activities supported by common schools, and which require equal access to any youth groups listed as a patriotic society in Title 36 of the United States Code;
- j. Equivalence among schools in teacher, administrators and auxiliary personnel and equivalence in the provision of curriculum materials and supplies among schools who receive Title I funds;
- k. Within each school, the school principal has determined that appropriate student discipline is established and enforced. The school principal has conferred with the certificated employees in the school building in order to develop and/or review district disciplinary standards and the uniform enforcement of those standards; and

- I. Written high school graduation requirements and rules have been adopted by the school district Board of Directors.
