

PERSONNEL

Goals

The staff of the district constitutes a valuable and significant resource for an effective educational program. The program of the district shall function successfully when highly-qualified staff are employed, opportunities for staff development are provided and the best possible working conditions are maintained which are conducive to personal, occupational, and professional satisfaction and which encourage each staff member to make the fullest contribution to the educational process.

Adoption Date: January 13, 1993