Learn About Myself lets you examine your preferences and interests and see how they align with careers. These are not tests, they are like the questionnaires you complete in your social media to share the things you like and dislike. There are no right or wrong answers - just think about the things you like and have fun with them!

♥ Bank Tellers

$30,112/yr

Career Summary

Bank tellers help customers with their banking activities.

Bank tellers carry out routine banking operations. They cash checks and accept deposits and payments. They handle withdrawals and sometimes prepare cashier's checks for customers. They sell products, such as traveler's checks or savings bonds. Tellers give information and answer questions about accounts or services. Some tellers inform customers about foreign currency rules and exchange rates

WHAT IS THE HIGH SCHOOL AND BEYOND PLAN?

- A High School and Beyond Plan (HSBP) is an important step in transition to life after high school
- The HSBP will help you set short and long term goals and prepare you for your post-high school training and future career plans.
- You will be revising your High School and Beyond Plan as your interests and/or goals change over the next four years.
- The HSBP is a graduation requirement for all GPHS students.
