Dear Seattle Hill Families;

As we welcome the sun this month, we also have a number of great things happening around our school! First off, thank you to all of our families and PTO for creating a memorable time for Teacher Appreciation Week! The food has been amazing and the door decorations are very creative! Last weekend we had a large group of volunteers from Mountain View Community Church and Glacier Peak student volunteers to help us out during the district's City-Wide Cleanup Event. Then on Sunday PTO opened the school for parents to decorate classroom doors and our staff room. Students added to the cause by drawing chalk art welcoming staff into the building on Monday morning. Now that was a great way to kickoff the month of May!

Other events happening this week are the 4/5/6 Hi Cap classes are hosting a Science Expo tonight starting at 6:00pm. Please stop by Mrs. Ahrens and Mr. Vaule's classrooms (Portables 12 and 13) to see some exciting science projects the students have been working on. Then join us on Friday morning at 7:55am for Moms and Muffins! This is a well-attended event and parking will be very limited. Please plan accordingly.

Later this month join us for our last PTO General Meeting on Tuesday May 14th in the library at 6:45pm. Also as we end the week, reminder that next week we start state testing! Please remember to promote positive thinking/growth mindset and healthy eating and sleeping habits over the next two weeks.

Sincerely,

Ryan Painter
Assistant Principal
