

Failure rate:
1-2%

8: The “RING”

The “ring” is a flexible ring containing hormones that is inserted into the vagina. The walls of the vagina hold the ring in place. The ring is worn for 3 weeks and then removed while the female has her period. At the end of the fourth week, a new ring is inserted.

