

SNOHOMISH
SCHOOL DISTRICT

7th English/Language Arts

Read for 20 minutes a day. You can get books through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Sora (thanks you, Mrs. Granger!)</li></ul> Sora by OverDrive<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• download Sora app from app store</li><li>• open app &gt; "click find my school"</li><li>• choose Snohomish School District by clicking "this is my school"</li><li>• click "sign in using Snohomish School District 201"</li><li>• log in with student email address &amp; password<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>⇒ student's email address = first.last@studentssd.org</li><li>⇒ password = the password the student uses at school to log-on to a school district computer)</li></ul></li><li>• once open, students will be able to browse/hold/check out ebooks &amp; audio books</li></ul> <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• A link to free audio books for kids on Audible at https://stories.audible.com/discovery</li></ul>	Choose a prompt (or several) from this link and write! 100 Writing Prompts	Check out these activities around Greek mythology! Greek Mythology Activities
Work on your ABC drafts each day. Don't forget about draft check-ins on Thursdays!	Keep a journal about your day-to-day life during this time. Record what is happening in the world and in your life. Think about including news articles, pictures, and other memorabilia. The world will need all kinds of primary sources for future	Read The Peace of Wild Things Poem by Wendell Berry. After reading, write your answers to these questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. How did you feel after reading this poem?</li><li>2. How does this poem relate to your life right now?</li></ol> Now, write your own original poem about finding peace

	generations. Yours could be one!	during uneasy times. See if you can write something that makes others feel better about uncertainty.
Write a letter to lawmakers, expressing your feelings about the Coronavirus pandemic. You could: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Express your gratitude for how hard they are working</li> <li>• Express your frustration for what is lacking in this situation</li> <li>• Offer your suggestions of solutions to the problems you see</li> </ul> Figure out where to send your letter here:  https://www.house.gov/representatives/find-your-representative	Showcase what you've been reading by completing one of these book projects: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Create a video book trailer (like a movie trailer, but for a book!)</li> <li>• Make a poster that would hang in a bookstore, enticing others to read your book.</li> <li>• Turn your book (or a chapter in your book) into a graphic novel</li> <li>• Write a song or a poem that uses the events of your book as a topic.</li> <li>• Write a five-paragraph essay explaining why others should read your book</li> </ul>	Pretend you are a book illustrator. Remember, illustrators usually draw important moments in the book. From the books we've read in class, which scenes do you believe should be illustrated? Choose the five scenes that you think should be drawn for The Watsons Go To Birmingham, 1963 OR The Hunger Games. Create these drawings.