

7th Grade

WA State History

Choice Board

Dear Students, here are suggested activities for this week. These activities are not required and will not be graded.

Create a journal that captures your experiences, challenges and feelings during this historic event. Journal entries should be completed in your composition notebook. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflect on one news story either on TV, internet or print. Please describe what was said and your analysis of these events. • What are some new terms and words that we use now? (Ex: social distancing, abundance of caution, self-quarantine) What do these words mean to us? • Take a moment to share your personal thoughts on the events happening around you. • How do you think people in the future will look back on this historical event? What will you tell future generations? More ideas in the attached document.	Artifacts: Try and collect some of the following and paste them or fold them into your Comp. Book. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A copy of school district notices about the school closures and other communications • Newspaper articles • Magazine articles • Grocery receipts or lists • Photographs of your home isolation, stacks of supplies, you and your family staying entertained at home • Emails from teachers or friends • Text messages about the closures or the crisis 	Research the history of the city of Snohomish. If someone new to Washington moved to Snohomish, what are 5 interesting facts about the history of Snohomish that you think they should know. https://www.historylink.org/File/8508 https://www.snohomishwa.gov/315/History-of-Snohomish
Read the article: Pollution is Plummeting in Italy Complete the current events worksheet and share your learning with one other person in your household. Discuss other possible side effects of the global pandemic.	Read the article: Mukilteo furniture maker converts factory Complete the current events worksheet and share your learning with one other person in your household. Discuss other ways community members are coming together to help one another during the global pandemic.	